TOBACCO PREVENTION EVENT OFFERS FAYETTEVILLE TEENS THE CHANCE TO BE “BUTT-KICKING” TV STARS

TRU ROAD TRIP COMES TO FAYETTEVILLE
ON JULY 24

(Fayetteville, NC) – Fayetteville-area teens will have a chance to star in a new series of teen tobacco use prevention television spots when the Tobacco. Reality. Unfiltered. (TRU) Road Trip comes to the Fayetteville’s Cross Creek Mall on Saturday, July 24, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

TRU, the state’s teen tobacco prevention and cessation initiative sponsored by the NC Health and Wellness Trust Fund (HWTF), will offer local teens a unique opportunity to speak out about the dangers of tobacco use based on their personal experiences. In addition, the TRU Road Trip will present a series of thought-provoking exhibits and educational displays on tobacco’s hazards. Victims of tobacco-related illnesses will also be on hand to share their personal experiences.

Fayetteville will mark the fourth stop on the TRU Road Trip’s statewide tour. The Road Trip, traveling to six North Carolina cities and towns this summer, is gathering teen testimonials for new television spots that will air in the fall. Visitors will also have a chance to win prizes, including tickets to Carolina Hurricanes games and the TJ Maxx 2004 Tour of Gymnastics Champions. Radio station WZFX-FM will broadcast live from the event and hand out cash prizes.

Specific groups participating include:

- Old North State Medical Society Youth Action Group
- S.A.V.E. Survivors

“The dangers of tobacco use are impossible to ignore,” said Lt. Gov. Beverly Perdue, HWTF chairperson, during a June press conference in Raleigh announcing the TRU Road Trip. “We need to get tobacco products out of our children’s reach and out of our schools.” Lt. Gov. Perdue noted that when the first TRU TV campaign launched in April, visits to the campaign’s Web site, www.realityunfiltered.com, shot up 140 percent from
